Profile

I'm a junior developer and translator based in Manchester. I'm a dedicated learner, well organised, with a keen eye for detail and I always plan ahead to make sure I manage my time well. I'm also a friendly and reliable individual who enjoys working both in a team and on my own.

Interests

Swimming, reading, baking and gardening, as much as a small flat allows. I also enjoy watching films and tv series as well as playing chess and videogames.
